SUSQUEHANNOCK

Our Dedication

We, the Senior Class of 1973, proudly dedicate our Susquehannock to a person who has unselfishly given so much of his time and energy for the improvement of our class.

A good teacher has many roles to play: leader, advisor, educator, and most of all, a true friend.

With much pride, we dedicate our Yearbook to a person who we feel has played all of these roles beautifully, MR. ROBERT STONER.

Liked entertainment at an early age.

"I wish that when I get big, I will conduct an orchestra at Carnegie Hall."

Looking to the future at Millersburg, notice the drum and even the hint of the Ferry.

... and as another routine day begins at Lansdowne Alden High, we hear one student remark to another, "Bob, we simply MUST do something about this dress code!"

"When you're as big as I am, Santa gives you anything you want."

"Why sure, Mr. Nixon, I'm sure we could march at your inauguration... for a small fee."

MILLERSBURG AREA BOARD OF EDUCATION

SEATED: Mr. Thomas Miller, Mr. Harold Knarr, Miss Frances Cummings, Mr. Robert Rissinger, Mr. Earl Burris, Mr. Rufus Romberger, Mr. Marvin Troutman. STANDING: Mr. Ronald Boyer, Mr. Michael Wilt, Mr. Stanley Bailey, Mr. Martin Seecof. ABSENT: Mr. Allen Shaffer.

Mr. Earl C. Burris, Superintendent

The American way of life has as one of its principles the fact of work. Even if you follow the Hedonist in believing that pleasure is the only good, you have to do some work to make the pleasure possible. One is expected to contribute economically, socially, and culturally. Having mastered the daily routine of living within this pattern, then we go on to fill our lives with personally rewarding experiences.

Of what does a full life consist? First of all, it requires that you be awake and active. It requires that you stretch your mind muscles so as to grasp and comprehend much that has not been forced upon you. It requires that you see and appreciate beauty. It requires that you stand on your own two feet, measuring up to life's demands, while at the same time you bow in awe of life's unexplained mysteries. As you progress from youth to adulthood you will learn to adjust to the circumstances of your new life so that you fit into the total situation. Insofar as you adapt yourself intelligently, you are master of your fate.

The time has come to grow up, and growing up consists mainly of bringing random impulses under control and coordinating activities. The mature world, whether business, professional, or technical, has no use for youth who enter it glorifying infantilism. Do not be afraid of getting wrinkles on your face in the process of developing maturity. There is nothing less interesting than a face on which life has written no story.

To the class of "73", we wish the utmost success. May we have taught you well, and may we ever be proud of your future achievements as we have been of your past accomplishments academically, athletically, aesthetically and literarily. You have been a credit to the Millersburg Area School District and Community.

MR. JAMES BULLOCK
High School Principal

To the Class of 1973:

I wish to express my sincere congratulations on having reached this plateau of life. This Class has learned some of the ups and downs of life by having to make a number of adjustments during the last two years brought about through school construction. You have accepted these adjustments in stride.

In future years when you have a few moments to reflect about your school days, we hope the memories of your alma mater are warm and pleasant.

Good Luck and Best Wishes in your future pursuit in life.

In Memory

Dennis Matter

Death, be not proud, though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so:
For those whom thou think'st thou dost overthrow
Die not, poor Death; not yet canst thou kill me.
From Rest and Sleep, which but thy picture be,
Much pleasure, then from thee much more must flow;
And soonest our best men with thee do go –
Rest of their bones and souls' delivery!
Thou'rt slave to fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war, and sickness dwell;
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well
And better than thy stroke. Why swell'st thou men?

One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And Death shall be no more: Death, thou shalt die!

– John Donne

such a dumb shit, the But^{ter} put it.
If you don't take any other goof off your senior year like

did. Best wishes in your future

A well-deserved congratulations goes to you, our Terrific Indian Football Team! You have succeeded, where others before you have failed, in pulling Millersburg football up from the lower ranks in the league. As the tension and excitement built up to that one special day, the outcome for many Millersburg fans seemed a tragedy. However, through good team play and unity, respect and terrific sportsmanship, you have shown yourselves to be true champions. Congratulations!

Millersburg Indians Proudly Present: Homecoming '72

Jan Wommer, 1971 Queen; Judy Morlock, Senior Attendant; Bonnie Boyer, 1972 Homecoming Queen; Joetta Miller, Junior Attendant.

Do you think they'll go farther than: a. Hebe b. Deiterville c. Hickory Corners d. Custer's backyard e. none of the above.

Aw, please give me a piggy-back ride.

And the deserving parents take a bow.

You mean we went to the football camp for a week just to learn how to dance the "Nutcracker Suite".

Naptime's over, boys.

Absolutely no words necessary!

The mighty men of Millersburg began in the heat,
Thinking of all the fine teams they would meet.
Tigers, Wildcats, Eagles, all of them fell,
Oh, everything was going so well!

Then came the day of the year's biggest game,
By then everyone knew the Indian name.
They played their hearts out, they gave us their best,
But tragically fell to an ungrateful guest.

For this Indian team, the cheers were loud,
Because they made everyone of us proud.

In winter the sports action moved to the gym,
Where many shots found their way to the rim.
The play of the team caused the people to cheer,
And the Indians felt they had nothing to fear.

Many months later, the season soon o'er,
The Mighty Indians continued to score.
To our skillful team, for the games they've won,
Our congratulations for a job well done!

"Tom, where are those pictures?" "You've only got two days to do ten pages!" "Aimee, help me think of a caption for this one." "Pass the rice krispie candy, please." These were some of the comments heard at our many yearbook meetings this year. The staff has worked very hard to make this the most exciting and different Susquehannock ever. You've probably noticed some changes already: the football and basketball pages, the new chorus lay-out, the candids throughout the ad pages, and the bold, bright new cover. The staff and our terrific advisor, Mrs. Stetz, have put a lot of time, frustration, energy, and fun into this yearbook. We hope you get just as much out of it!

WONDERFUL TOWN

"This is just the place for you!"

"Eileen, I think I'm going to be sick."

"His hand feels like a mushy banana split."

"You guys sound like a bunch of pregnant cows."

"Maybe what I have isn't ordinary dandruff."

"I wish he'd put down that gun and pick me up."

"Somebody help, my hand just went through the drum head!"

"It sure doesn't look like tomato juice."

"What's a gut gut bucket anyhow?"

"Swing it!"

"Tell that lady in the front row to sit down!"

"I'm ready when you are."

"What a waste!"

"I wish he'd kiss MY hand."

"My leg makeup's not running, how about yours?"

"Look ma, only one cavity."

A typical night for the Class of '73.

"Glenn, Glenn, quite contrary, how does your garden grow – it doesn't."

"Your WHAT hurts?!?"

Continued;
never forget on
our band trips
all the food we had
and how much we missed
having some cans of other liquids.
Next year at band camp, I will help you spread the mattresses over the beams and rest time at band & get all the Krispies. Also, next time at band trips will help never forget on the band trips leftovers. I always was after a different chick and we usually ended up with milk, Shadde, Patten, Martz, Harris, etc. And keep putting the moves on Feaster
